THE

SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

Monday, September 26*th*, 1743. [Numb. 496]

LONDON, May 28, 1743.

IT is aſſerted, that a Grand Alliance, which has been long negociating at a certain German Court, is on the Point of being concluded; and that we ſhall then know from whom, and on what Terms, Europe is to expect a Peace.

Yeſterday a large Number of Tin Boats were put on board a Ship at the Tower Wharf, for the Uſe of his Majeſty's Army in Flanders.

We hear that 700 Men are raiſing with all Expedition, in Scotland and Wales, who (with their Families) will be ſent to ſtrengthen the Colony of Georgia.

It is confidently aſſerted in Letters from Hanover, that the Marriage between the Prince Royal of Denmark and the Princeſs Louiſa will take Place in the Month of Auguſt next.

May 31. This Morning came Advice that his Majeſty's Ship the Deptford Storeſhip arrived ſafe Yeſterday off Dover, from Piſcataqua; in her Paſſage ſhe was attack'd by a Spaniſh Privateer of 40 Guns, with whom ſhe engaged for a conſiderable Time, but the Privateer thought fit to ſheer off, and the Deptford being loaden with Maſts could not purſue her

General Nadaſti, with a Corps of 4000 Huſſars, having taken Poſt within Four Miles of Munich, all the Nobility, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, who went to wait upon his Imperial Majeſty, retired immediately to Ingoldſtadt.

We hear that three Frenchmen were lately diſcovered as they were endeavouring to ſet fire to one of the Magazines belonging to the Earl of Stair's Army, and were executed

June 2. Early this Morning the Lords of the Admiralty received the agreeable News from Briſtol, that his Majeſty's Ship the Port Mahone, commanded by the Honourable Capt. Aylmer, had taken on Sunday laſt in Soundings, a very large Spaniſh Privateer of 24 Carriage and 6 Swivel Guns, and 150 Men, and brought her to an Anchor in King Road on Tueſday Night laſt as the Poſt was coming out from Briſtol.

His Sardinian Majeſty has iſſued his Letters of Array, by which all the Nobility of Piedmont are required to attend his Majeſty at a Day aſſigned, in order to march into Savoy.

Letters are arrived in Town from the Mediterranean, dated the 14th of May, with Advice, that Capt Ambroſe, in the Rupert Man of War, and another of his Majeſty's Ships, had viſited the Coaſt of Spain, and had taken out of ſeveral of their Harbours, ſixteen large Ships, without the Loſs of one Man.

Admiralty Office, May 30. Letters are received from Commodore Anſon, giving an Account of his Arrival in the River of Canton in China, on the 11th of November laſt; and he is expected in England ſome Time this Summer.

While he was in the South-Sea he took the following Prizes; A Ship of 500 Tons, 4 Guns, and 75 Men, her Cargo conſiſting chiefly of Bales of Woollen and Cotton Cloth, Bays, and Sugar, with a conſiderable Sum of Money.

Another Ship of about 600 Tons, 4 Guns, 65 Men, loaden chiefly with coarſe Bays and Sugar, with ſome Money and Plate.

Another of 300 Tons, 4 Guns, and 52 Men, loaden with Plank and Cocoa.

A Fourth of about 270 Tons, loaden with Bale Goods, Iron and Steel.

Another Ship, and a Launce, having each a conſiderable Sum of Money on board, and the former laden with Wine and Brandy.

A Bark of about 60 Tons, of ſmall Value

He alſo attacked and took the Town of Payta, with the Loſs of one Man kill'd, and two wounded, and found a large Sum of Money there, beſides Jewels. He kept Poſſeſſion of the Town for three Days, in order to plunder it, and then cauſed it to be ſet on Fire, in order to deſtroy ſeveral Store Houſes filled with Bale Goods, Jeſuits Bark, and other rich Commodities, which his Men were not able to bring off.

He found a Ship, two Snows, a Schooner, and two Row-Galleys of 36 Oars each, in the Bay of Payta; all which he cauſed to be ſunk or deſtroy'd

London, June 4. Early on Thurſday Morning M. Buſſy unexpectedly ſet out for France.

We hear he is gone by Order of his Court directly to Paris for Inſtructions, and from thence he will go to his Britannick Majeſty.

Letters from Genoa adviſe, that ſeveral Projects are under Conſideration for reducing the Corſicans, either by fair Means or by Force; and that as ſoon as any one of thoſe Projects is approved by the Senate, M. Giuſtiniani, the new Commiſſary General for Corſica, will ſet out for Baſtia in order to lay the Republick's Propoſal before the Malecontents In the mean time the Corſicans keep quiet eno', and wait impatiently for the Arrival of M. Giuſtiniani, that they may know what they have to truſt to.

They write from Florence, that Baron Neuhoff, who lately departed from thence, upon his being informed that ſome Genoeſe Emiſſaries were lying in wait for him there, and that the Regency could not take upon them to protect him againſt the Republick of Genoa, is now at Cigoli, near San Miniato, and lodges in the Pariſh Prieſt's Houſe, from whence he has wrote to divers Courts of Europe and only waits for their Anſwers, in order to take a final Reſolution, whether to go on with or lay aſide the Affair of Corſica entirely.

On Thurſday Night the Right Hon the Lords Commiſſioners for Appeals gave Judgment in the Cauſe before them, in Regard to the Claims on the Pierre Joſeph, taken by his Majeſty's Ship the Squirrel, and unanimouſly agreed not to receive any Claims on a Spaniſh Regiſter ſhip. The Encouragement their Lordſhips have juſtly given to the whole Navy in general, as well as the Captors of this Prize, by their Judgment in this Caſe, will entirely prevent for the future any unjuſt Claims, or tedious Law-Suits, after the unwearied Sailer has brought home his Prize to the deſired Port, and diſcourage hereafter the Spaniſh Agents and clandeſtine Traders from giving Trouble, Expence, and Delay, to the brave and lucky Captors of Spaniſh Ships.

June 7. All the Advices from Germany agree that the French, who have ſo long made a grand Parade, are dancing back with the utmoſt Precipitation; and meet with Loſſes and Croſſes continually; In one Place their Artillery, in another their ſmall Arms, in a third their Ammunition, in a fourth their Baggage, in a fifth their Linnen (juſt after they had waſh'd it) and in all Places their Honour; and moſtly taken from them by a Body of Fellows who, they ſay, are a wild, undiſciplin'd Rabble — Indeed it muſt be own'd, they are an unpoliſh'd People, and have not paid the leaſt Regard to the Politeneſs and Magnificence of the French Nation.

June 9. Prince William of Heſſe-Caſſel is ſaid to have ſett ed settled the Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland with a Princeſs of Pruſſia, during his late Viſit to the Court of Berlin.

The ſame Day Advice came that his Majeſty's Ship the Squirrel, Capt. Geary, took laſt Friday Evening a Spaniſh Privateer of 14 Carriage, and 14 Swivel Guns, and 150 Men, near Blackneſs, on the Coaſt of France

The ſame time came Advice that three Spaniſh Regiſter Ships were arrived in the Ports of Spain, viz. one from the Carracas, and two from La Vera Cruz.

June 11. This Morning arrived a Mail from Lisbon, by which we have Advice from Madeira of the 22d of May, N. S. that one of our Men of War had that Day brought in there a Spaniſh Privateer of 24 Gun, and 128 Men.

Several Spies having been diſcovered in the Army of the Allies, have been hanged in Terrorem

Letters from Madrid ſay, that Don Emanuel Pontius de Leon, whom the King charged to aſſemble the Militia in Catalonia deſtined to reinforce the Infant Don Philip's Army, has writ to Court, to beſeech his Catholick Majeſty to give that Commiſſion to ſome Body elſe, as he cannot exert his Authority without manifeſt Danger of his Life; for that neither Entreaties nor Menaces can appeaſe the Mutiny among that Militia; and that when he went in purſuit of thoſe who had deſerted, his Horſe was ſhot under him twice.

His Majeſty's Ship the Duke, a 2d Rate of 90 Guns, is order'd to be mann'd and victuall'd with all Expedition for Service.

Letters from Gibraltar, dated April 26, bring Word that the Shark Snow brought into that Place a Spaniſh Barcelongo of 14 Carriage Guns and 160 Men, which he took of Cadiz, being ſent out in queſt of ſome of our Merchantmen: She had been out 16 Days, and had taken never a Prize

There is Advice from Bourdeaux, that an Engliſh Merchant-Ship of thirty Guns, and ſeventy Men, for Leghorn, was attack'd and taken by a Spaniſh Privateer of forty Guns, and upwards of 300 Men; the firſt time the Spaniards attempted to board her they had eighty Men kill'd, among them the firſt Lieutenant; but on a ſecond Attempt the Spaniards ſucceeded, having kill'd the Engliſh Commander.

June 14. An extraordinary Quantity of Beef and Pork, with a vaſt Supply of dry Proviſions, as Biſcuit, Peaſe, &c. are ordered to be ſent from the Victualling Office to Portſmouth; from whence 'tis conjectured that a Fleet of Obſervation will in a ſhort Time rendezvous there.

The Lords of the Admiralty have appointed his Majeſty's Ship the Leo to carry the Hon George Clinton, Eſq; to his Government at New York; on board of which he will embark in a few Days.

Letters from Edinburgh adviſe, that there never was a better Seaſon known, nor a greater Appearance of Plenty of Grain, throughout the whole Kingdom.

June 16. Capt. Gibſon, in an Engliſh Privateer, on the 6th of May laſt, took a Spaniſh Settee, richly laden, and has carried her into Port Mahon.

The Mary and Jacob, Berwick, is ſafe arriv'd in the River from Bilboa with Engliſh Priſoners on Board, which were releas'd purſuant to the Cartel lately agreed on between the two Crowns.

CHARLES-TOWN, September 26.

Laſt Thurſday a ſmall Schooner bound from Providence for Boſton, put in here, having ſprung a Leak. This Veſſel a few Days before her Arrival, met with the George Privateer of Philadelphia, commanded by Capt Dowell, convoying home a large Spaniſh Regiſter Ship, which he, with Capt. Sibbald had taken in the Straights of Bahama.

On Saturday the Beaufort Galley, commanded by Captain Lyford, arrived here from Port-Royal.
